LA 151-148

MISCELLANEOUS

It is noted that the applicant listed JOHN WALTON CAUGHEY, 1897 Mango Way, Los Angeles, California, as being his father-in-law.

On August 20, 1963, physical observation of 1897 Mango Way, Los Angeles, revealed that address to belong to a house situated on top of a hill, surrounded by a wire fence and gate, with a private road leading up to it.

On August 20, 1963, [redacted] West Los Angeles, California, advised that he is the closest neighbor to JOHN WALTON CAUGHEY. He stated that he is well acquainted with CAUGHEY and has been since 1958. He advised that he and CAUGHEY formed a business partnership and purchased the top of the hill where CAUGHEY's house is presently situated. He stated that his business is that of a general contractor and CAUGHEY employed him to build his (CAUGHEY) home.

[redacted] advised that CAUGHEY is a History Professor at the University of California at Los Angeles, (UCLA).

[redacted] advised that CAUGHEY has a daughter, [redacted] who is married to ERNEST MAY, whom he also knows. [redacted] stated that CAUGHEY and his daughter and son-in-law appear to be a very close-knit family. He advised that the son-in-law has lived on the East coast since his marriage, but has made frequent trips to the CAUGHEY home since 1959. [redacted] advised that on the date of the interview, CAUGHEY's son-in-law was, at that time, visiting in the CAUGHEY household.

b7C

[redacted] stated that from his contact with CAUGHEY and MAY, it was his opinion that MAY looked to his father-in-law for guidance and certainly respected his father-in-law's opinions.

LA 151-148

[] stated that Professor CAUGHEY is very active in politics and espouses very liberal views. He stated that CAUGHEY has many large gatherings in his home. He stated that he has attended some of these gatherings, but has turned down the last several invitations, as there were many members of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, Freedom Riders and others whom he considers "too liberal".

[] advised that the reason for turning down these invitations was that his political views differ considerably from those of CAUGHEY.

On August 20, 1963, [] West Los Angeles, California advised that her husband is the Ex-Chancellor of the University of California at Los Angeles, and he is presently in the East and is unavailable for interview. She stated that she knows JOHN WALTON CAUGHEY as a Professor of History, at the University of California at Los Angeles, and has known [] and his family for a number of years. She stated that it is common knowledge that CAUGHEY refused to sign the Loyalty Oath as required by California law, and was discharged from the University in the early 50's.

She further advised that the law requiring the Loyalty Oath was repealed and Professor CAUGHEY was reinstated. She stated that she knows of Professor CAUGHEY's son-in-law, but stated that her association with the CAUGHEY's has been limited since her husband retired, three years ago from the University. She stated that she did not feel qualified to comment on the relationship between JOHN CAUGHEY and his son-in-law.

LA T-1 advised on January 25, 1951, that the name of JOHN WALTON CAUGHEY, 240 Chadbourne Avenue, appeared on an envelope containing the official ballot for the Arts, Sciences and Professions Council, (See appendix) for the purpose of voting for the officers and executive board for the year of 1951.

The UCLA "Daily Bruin", issue of September 3, 1950, page two, contained an article entitled "Regents Act to End Loyalty Oath". The article stated that among the non-signers of the Loyalty Oath, who must either sign or leave the University, was JOHN WALTON CAUGHEY, Professor of History.

On November 7, 1960, LA T-2 advised that the name of Dr. JOHN WALTON CAUGHEY, 240 Chadbourne Avenue appeared on an envelope containing copies of a petition to abolish the House Committee on Un-American Activities.

An article appeared in the "Daily People's World" captioned, "Women to Discuss Freedom Votes". The article stated that Dr. JOHN WALTON CAUGHEY, History Professor, will be one of the speakers at the "Women for Legislative Action", (See appendix) Second Annual Conference, October 18, 1953. The "Daily People's World", now known as the "People's World", is a west coast communist paper.

On September 6, 1958, an article appeared in the "People's World" captioned, "Un-Americans Stir Public Ire". This article lists the names of numerous signers of the advertising which appeared in the "Times" and the "Mirror" newspapers, which proclaimed their opposition to the abuses of the Un-American Activities Committee of Congress. Appearing among those names was Professor JOHN WALTON CAUGHEY.

LA T-3 advised on May 13, 1959, that a meeting sponsored by the Powell-Schuman Defense Fund, (See appendix) would be held on May 17, 1959, and that Professor JOHN WALTON CAUGHEY, a board member of the American Civil Liberties Union, would discuss "What Happened to McCarthyism?".

The files of LA T-4 and LA T-5, a municipal and county agency, respectively, which maintain information concerning the Communist Party and some related activities in the Los Angeles area, were checked on July 29, 1963, and July 27, 1963, respectively, and advised that their information is the same as above and therefore, it is not being set forth.

Confidential Informants, who are fairly familiar with some phases of the Communist Party and related activities in the Los Angeles area, had no information concerning the applicant.

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations" (revised December 1, 1961) page 225, stated this organization is cited as "one of the major Communist-dominated propaganda media on the Pacific Coast" (California Committee on Un-American Activities, Report, 1955, pages 392 and 393).

An informant advised on January 4, 1956, that the Los Angeles Chapter was dissolved on January 3, 1956.

The National Council of Arts, Sciences and Professions has been cited as a "Communist front" by the United States Congressional Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report number 1954, dated April 26, 1950.

WOMEN FOR LEGISLATIVE ACTION

A source advised on May 1, 1963, that the Women for Legislative Action was formed in 1952, claiming to be an independent organization dedicated to non-partisan participation in legislative and civic activities. Its position in favoring or opposing legislation usually parallels the position of the Communist Party and related groups. It also supports legislation to abolish the House Committee on Un-American Activities. Membership in the Women for Legislative Action does not, of itself, connote membership in or sympathy with the Communist Party.
